ABOUT COUGHS:

There are many causes of cough which may be divided into productive (chesty) or non-productive (dry) in character.

Dry coughing suggests airway irritation and / or inflammation (without excessive extra secretion formation).

ICELAND MOSS - a soothing herbal remedy

Traditionally used in European herbal medicine to relieve dry unproductive coughs.

MODE OF ACTION:

Cetraria islandica (Iceland moss - aqueous extract) has a protective effect on the mucosa by forming a layer of moisture over irritated and damaged mucosa of the mouth and throat.
